Meet the Hosts

For five decades, the Fisheries Broadcast has brought stories about the fishery to fishermen and people in the fishing industry.

John Murphy

At the helm right now is John Murphy, who many of our listeners may know from his highly popular summer replacement show @Murphy's. John replaces Chris O'Neil-Yates who has hosted the show for the last three years.

John's available at 576-5275, if there's something you'd like to talk about, either an idea for the show or a comment about something you heard on the Broadcast.

Here are some of the people who have brought the Fisheries Broadcast to Newfoundland and Labrador since 1951.

Other former hosts of the Fisheries Broadcast

Front Row - Kathy Porter, Anne Budgell (first full-time female host), Kathryn King.
